July 18-31 COSSIE SUTTON, Agt.

Rev. Hartsfield's subjects at the Christian Church Sunday morning: "Angry with his Brother." Night: "How am I to be Saved." Staver's Grove 3 o'clock in the afternoon. "Beauty in Religion."

If the Signal does not come up to its usual standard this week we most earnestly ask the indulgence of our readers as we were compelled to neglect it to a certain extent in order to get out the Brodhead Fair Catalogue on time.

The Lincoln Democrat, which was sold last Monday, was bought by John Pearl of the Mountain Democrat. It is not known whether Mr. Pearl will take the outfit to London or continue the paper at Stanford.

Matt Ford, John Mullins and Charley Martin, were tried before Judge Lewis Tuesday charged with breach of the peace. Ford and Mullins were acquitted. Martin was fined $25 and ten days for concealed weapons.

Willis Griffin lost all but one of his hives of bees. A brick kiln was burned near them, when the bees rose for flight they were caught by intense heat that reached high above the kiln, scorching the bees to death.

J. C. Hocker, the clever Livingston druggist, was tried here Tuesday, charged with selling intoxicating liquor. He proved that he handles malt, a non alcoholic beverage, that is sold in many prohibition counties and on which the government charges no tax. The jury promptly acquitted Mr. Hocker.

The Lincoln County Telephone Company has run a line from Stanford over Lancaster pike connecting with Bastin Co's switchboard at Lancaster. This gives the Independents three routes into Stanford. The Stanford office will be found at Bruce's livery stable until the new Stanford exchange can be built, which is being done as fast as the work can be pushed.

J. R. Robinson, aged about 30, was arrested at Livingston Tuesday morning, charged with having attempted rape on the person of Miss Susie Milburn aged 16. Trial was called here yesterday and was continued until Tuesday next. In default of bail he was sent to jail.
